

Institutional distinctiveness

Arts, Commerce and Science College, Lanja N.S.S.: A Milestone

Vision of the institution is to enhance student's minds and their feelings to empower their intellectual skill in order to develop responsible citizen.

The motto of N.S.S. is 'NOT ME BUT YOU', which inculcated the feeling to strive for other, in the minds of the volunteers. The N.S.S. department functions under the strong and disciplined leadership of Programme Officer and District Coordinator of N.S.S. department Dr. Rahul Marathe. His efforts are to maintain the consistency and perfection in the coming future also.

20 volunteers participated in the Tree Plantation Awareness Campaign under the 13 crore Tree Plantation campaign of Maharashtra Government in 2018-19. N.S.S. volunteers performed street play to appeal the people for maximum tree plantation.

Rally was organized to protest the use of plastic on 8th September, 2018. Encountering the typical issue of safety related to railway travelling N.S.S. department commenced the project of 'Rail Mitra' with the cooperation of Konkan Railway Corporation, Ratnagiri Division, which was based on the concept of Women and Child safety on rail travel. The campaign was inaugurated by Vice-Chancellor of Mumbai University, Honorable Dr. Suhas Pednekar. The period of the campaign was from July, 2018 to March, 2019. Volunteers of the N.S.S. department of the institution performed 14 street plays on 10 railway stations in the district of Ratnagiri and Sindhudurg. The campaign was advocated by 270 volunteers of 22 colleges and total 48 street plays were performed.

N.S.S. department of the institution hosted the Leadership Camp of Ratnagiri district from 3rd to 7th September, 2018 at Math, Lanja. Total 79 volunteer from Ratnagiri district participated in this camp.

The 7 days residential camp was scheduled from 28th December, 2018 to 3rd January, 2019 at Run, Lanja. 62 girls and 30 boys participated in this camp. 160 villagers were benefited by the free medical checkup organized during the camp.

N.S.S. department has adopted the 'Agargaon' and undertaken the activities such as Women empowerment, Cleanliness, Various competitions and self defense workshop for women.

Organisation of Skill India event in the institution's premises was one of the grand events managed by the N.S.S. volunteers.

Volunteers have shown an active participation in the National Integrity Camp at Rajasthan, 'Avhaan' State level Disaster Management camp at Aurangabad, University level camp at Dapoli and District level camp at Muchari.

N.S.S. department of the institution arranged a one day workshop on Cancer awareness and Organic farming which was organized jointly by Amba Foundation, Mumbai and N.S.S. department of Mumbai University on 12th February, 2019. 50 students and 50 farmers were benefited by the workshop.

REMARKABLE ACHIVEMENTS

☒ 'Firta Chashak' award of 201819 for Best Volunteer announced by honorable social worker, Mr. Vivek Sawant in the memory of his father Late. Bhai Sawant was awarded to Mr. Amar Pawar, N.S.S. volunteer

☒ Best District Coordinator Award of Mumbai University for 201718 was awarded to Dr. Rahul Marathe.

☒ Best N.S.S. Unit Award of Mumbai University for 201718.